

The servants represent the _____

The landowners son is _____

The Application of the Parable

God often bestows wonderful privileges
People often make bad use of their privileges Judgement comes on those who waste the privileges God provides

The _____ of the Resurrection
Jesus and Paul taught the power of the Spirit of God

The _____ of the Resurrection
Jesus and Paul taught all would be raised

The _____ of the Resurrection
At the rapture: Judgement seat of Christ
At the end of the millennium:
White throne judgement

Duty to God and Country

12:13-17

To Country:
Pay taxes
Obey laws
Fear and honor
Do good
Pray

To God:
Love with all our being
Obey from the heart
Make God our priority

Two Great Commandments

12:28-34

To love _____
(under OT covenant / surely under NT grace)

To love your _____
Enjoined upon Christians
Enhanced by a new command
Experienced when we keep God's command
Educated by the example of Christ

The Resurrection of the Dead

12:18-27

The _____ of the Resurrection
Taught by Jesus
Proclaimed by the Apostles

David's Son & David's Lord

12:35-37

Christ is David's son
According to _____

Christ is David's Lord
According to _____

Scribes

12:38-40

Desired to wear their long robes
Loved greetings in the market places
Best seats in the synagogue
Best places at the feast
Devour widows houses
Offer long prayers

Widow's Mite

12:41-44

Narrative:

Putting money in the Temple treasury
The contributions of the rich
The gift of the poor widow
Jesus observes all giving

Lessons:

The value is not how much is given
but what remains

What matters most to God is not how much you have, but who you are

Jesus uses the widow as an example / testimony of true giving

Lesson 19 – Mark 12:1-44

A Parable / Christian duty to God and country /
The Resurrection of the dead / Two great commands /
David's Son and David's Lord / Scribes / Widow's mite

A review of the last three days:

Sunday - triumphal entry

Monday - cursing of fig tree

Tuesday - lesson of fig tree and questions about Jesus authority

The Meaning of the Parable

12:1-12

The vineyard is _____ Isaiah 5:1-7

The man who planted is _____

The wicked vinedressers represent _____

Lesson 20

Mark 13:1-37

